STEP 5

Admitted to ourselves and to another human being the exact nature of our wrongs.

THE TRUTH SHALL SET YOU FREE

After completing a detailed Step 4 we now have an exhaustive list of our wrongdoings so it would appear to be an easy transition to Step 5 where we must engage in “Full Disclosure” with another human being. That is when it all becomes real. Sharing it with another may bring back the pain, guilt, and shame of our actions. Actually, that’s a good thing. It is necessary for any pain that lingers to be felt, discussed and transmuted. (Old program adage: Uncover, discover, discard). Sharing it with another will help relinquish a lot of the pain that we have unnecessarily held onto that has held us back in so many areas of our lives. The guilt and shame that is attached to most of our actions still needs to be resolved. I learned a while ago the difference between the two. Guilt: I did something bad. Shame: I am bad. As far as guilt goes there are tools in the steps to help rectify our wrongs- by making amends. In order to truly advance in our recovery, we must take responsibility in this way. As for the shame, it’s something that can be worked through over time as we continue to take the right action and be of service to others.

Now by the time we have reached this step many of our “wrongs” we may have been discussed in meetings, written down, shared with a sponsor or a few fellows, but that isn’t sufficient. However, many of us have issues that are not appropriate to share at a group level, and that is why it is vital to find the right person with whom to share it. It must be someone that we respect and trust. Most of the time it is our sponsor, but sometimes it can be a close friend in or out of the program or someone in our spiritual or religious community. If you are having difficulty with the trust issue, it might be a good idea to revisit Step 3 and ask for your Higher Power’s assistance.

During the sharing process, being completely honest, relief will come, usually immediately, because we will recognize that we all share common humanity. It’s a great feeling to when we get to a place where someone truly knows us, and all the terrible things we have done, yet still accepts us. When that happens we can begin the process of truly forgiving ourselves and eliminate the shame. This shame we have felt has been holding many of us back throughout our lives.

In discussing Step 5, it is vital that we discuss “the exact nature of our wrongs” and all the feelings, thoughts and beliefs that become evident. We need to discuss the consequences and how we felt about them. Some of the defects may include jealousy, control, impatience, etc. If we understand the root causes of these defects we can begin to forgive ourselves and commit to making changes and not repeating the behavior. Although many of our actions may have been justified, even to this day, but clinging to the justification serves no purpose. By sharing it with another, it allows us to view it with a different perspective. If we ask for feedback, we may recognize in some cases that our part in it was to hang on way too long. It may have made us feel like a victim and inhibited us from living the healthy and joyous lives we were meant to have.

Trust is a big issue for most addicts and gamblers. Many of us have been let down by others in our lives and as a result, we continued that behavior and became untrustworthy ourselves. Regaining trust is a gradual process and Step 5 is the starting point. By opening up and sharing some of our deepest and darkest secrets we allow ourselves to become vulnerable. As we do so, we continue with the healing and are on our way to true connection with ourselves, others and our Higher Power.

The additional advantage of sharing this with another person after completing the 4th step is that during the discussion other experiences may come to surface that you may have completely forgotten about or have hidden deeply. There is no harm in doing an addendum to your Step 4. As you complete this step it will be useful to complete a list of your shortcomings while they are fresh in your mind, to prepare you for Steps 6 and 7.

Step 5 can be very freeing. I have done many “Step 5’s” in my years of recovery and in workshops; sometimes with a fellow G.A. member and many other times with a sponsor. I have always felt tremendous relief upon completion. I always received total acceptance and love and never felt any judgment, shock or surprise. As a matter of fact, in many cases, it helped the other person open up and share some issues that they hadn’t dealt with or remembered themselves. The entire experience has motivated me to continue on my journey through the rest of the steps. Yes, we are certain to feel a whole wide range of emotions. Nonetheless, we now have all the tools and support we need to deal with them instead of avoiding them like many of us have done throughout our lives.

Frank S., Santa Monica, CA

GROUP NEWS

Dear Karen and I.S.O.,

Firstly, thank you all for your continuing efforts in support of G.A.

Enclosed is a bank draft and our literature order for the Beginners Group in Edmonton, Alberta, Canada. We’ve taken it upon ourselves to employ a portion of our group funds that we received last summer to order and keep a supply of G.A. literature in a locker at our meeting place, so that other groups in our Area can make purchases and have literature available for their members.

It seems that some groups are beginning to appreciate have the ability to acquire G.A. literature on short notice and without shipping charges.

The program is in the literature and the fellowship is in the rooms. There is a difference between the two and we feel that the literature carries the message in addition to the experience, strength and hope in the rooms. It is important to get the newcomer into the literature and most importantly, doing what it says.

May a power greater than each of us guide us all in our recovery endeavors.

Gratefully, Warren S., Edmonton, Alberta

Hi. I.S.O. (Karen),

Enclosed is a one-time donation from the Saturday Gladstone, Oregon meeting. Sadly we have closed the meeting.

A member sent us this letter and we thought it “said it best”. We did get the authors permission if you would like to share it in the Bulletin.

Thank you,

Pam B., Canby, Oregon

Dear G.A. Saturday Gladstone Meeting,

I am writing this because I am not able to be at the Saturday Gladstone Meeting as it officially closes after more than a decade of service to compulsive gamblers. I do not know what would have happened to me had this meeting not existed when I first walked through its doors in March 2008. I wasn't ready to admit my powerlessness over the disease of compulsive gambling at that time and I struggled to define each of the 20 Questions in a specific way so that I could believe I really didn't belong.

The truth is that I am a compulsive gambler and I have found a way to abstain from my addiction through the Recovery Program, meetings and people like those I found in Gladstone that day. I left the meeting and gambled, but I remembered being told to come back; and I did. Over and over until I could finally string more than 30 days, more than 60 days, more than 90 days and finally a full year together without gambling.

Some of the people in that meeting are no longer with us. I will forever remember Vic S., Bob F. and Larry R. because they played a big role in my survival, which I'm blessed today to call my Recovery. Two of my closest friends in all time (Sue G. and Terri W.) came from the Gladstone meeting and bonded with me as we shared our brokenness with one another with brutal honesty. Other friends from this meeting are still in my life and though I don't see them often I still cross their paths in the program and call them dear friends as they remain in my heart as those who honored me by listening and loving me until I found a way to love myself: Helen, Kevin, Judy, Richard, Don, Dan, Jim, Lynda, Jessie, Rose, Sandy, Connie, Clara, Dale, Pam, John O., Curt , Sharon, and countless others who walked beside me through the years and help me up when Walt died and kept me true to the commitment I made in that Gladstone meeting to not gamble today.

I will miss the room where I celebrated birthdays and told my story at a speaker meeting for the first time. I am so grateful to St. Stevens for allowing our program to use its facilities for so many years. I am sad to see this meeting close, but one of the things I have learned over these years is that the Program is carried by the people who work it and wherever one or two of us meets and hold the door open, recovery is possible.

Gladstone's time is past now but not without having changes countless lives. Special thanks and love to Kevin and Helen who faithfully kept this meeting going for all of these years. Your gifts of time and commitment changed my life.

Lovingly, Vicki, Gladstone, Oregon

Note From I.S.O.: I was also sad to hear about the closing of the Gladstone meeting. Pam, thank you for forwarding Vicki's letter and Vicki, thank you for so eloquently sharing your remembrances over the last 11 years. Please let us know if we can be of any assistance if you start another meeting in the area.

Hi Karen,

Please find enclosed a bank draft for my annual Lifeline donation.

I owe my recovery to G.A. After 20 years of irresponsible gambling I attended my first G.A. meeting on February 21, 2013. I walked into that meeting broken, despondent and confused. I was warmly greeted by the group and those strangers shared their stories that night and I left that meeting with something gambling had never given me, a hope for a better future. Some of those strangers soon became good friends.

My recovery was not seamless and I had a few slips along the way, but on May 21st I will celebrate 4 years clean. I owe this to my home group, the Thursday Beginners meeting, my sponsor, Warren S. and G.A. I still attend the meetings faithfully and now I share my story with strangers in the hopes that, perhaps, it may help a newcomer, someone coming back after a slip, or the compulsive gambler who still suffers find their own ray of hope.

Yours truly, Bruce M., Edmonton, Alberta

In Memory of...

Dear I.S.O.,

Enclosed you will find a check. With this check Beaver/Vanport G.A. would like to make a memorial donation to honor two of our members who recently passed away. Shirley D. and Roseanne P. were both very special women in our group.

These two ladies will be sadly missed. I am sending a card to each of their families.

Yours truly, Dee R., Monaca, Pennsylvania

Note From I.S.O.: Dee, thank you for your groups donation in memory of Shirley and Roseanne. They were both dedicated members of our fellowship, who will be missed. Our heartfelt condolences go out to both of their families and friends.

Where would you be today without G.A.? Become a Lifeliner Today!

A Lifeliner is a member of the G.A. fellowship who cares enough about the financial well being of G.A. to make a monthly donation. This donation helps to insure that G.A. will always be there for the compulsive gambler who still suffers.

You will benefit by becoming a Lifeliner because...

- ... it offers you a way to give back to the program that has given you so much.
- ... it allows you to make a commitment to the program in a more direct way.
- ... it helps the International Service Office to spread the message to those who haven't yet been blessed as you have.
- ... it makes you one of a special group of people who do a little extra for the program that saved their lives.
- ... it gives you a sense of responsibility.
- ... it helps you remember that Gamblers Anonymous needs you as much as you need Gamblers Anonymous.

We are self supporting through our own contributions.

How often have you thought or heard: "Gamblers Anonymous saved my life. I can't do enough to repay the program for what it has done for me."

One of the ways you can give is by becoming a Lifeliner. Simply fill out the bottom of this flyer and send it to I.S.O. with your personal monthly tax deductible contribution and you will receive a receipt by return mail along with an envelope for your next month's contribution. It's that easy!!

Do it today – it's the right thing to do!
